

MAYO'S Is A Real Help

Get behind a well-packed pipeful of Mayo's, with the fragrant smoke curling under your nostrils and the mellow taste of it on your tongue, and you've just got to be happy at your work. Mayo's fills a man with so much Cheerful Energy he has to have an outlet for it, and that outlet is Work. That's why New Englanders are always busy and happy—they're always smoking away on

Mayo's Cut Plug

It's all ripe, mild Burley leaf—the finest smoking tobacco leaf on earth—aged until it's rich and fragrant, sweet and satisfying. Made into Cut Plug to make it pipe-perfect—even burning and cool-smoking.

No better Cut Plug than Mayo's has ever been made—and you'll back that statement to the limit after a week's trial of Mayo's.

Notwithstanding the showers of July 4, the boys played two games of ball with a team from Barre, winning both of them. The first game resulted in a score of 3 to 1, the second game in a score of 5 to 2. Perry pitched a splendid game in the afternoon and was well supported. The visitors got one score in the sixth and one in the eighth inning, while our boys got all their runs in the fifth inning.

A very pleasant reception was held in I. O. G. T. hall last Saturday evening in honor of the recent marriage of Will Walker and Miss Ruth Duke. The hall was prettily decorated with ferns, daisies and white bells. The wedding march was played by Miss Elsie Barrett. The newly wedded couple stood beneath a large white bell and were attended by Warren Walker, brother of the groom, and Miss Ethel Duke, sister of the bride. A table was especially arranged for the bride party, where were seated the bride and groom, the two attendants and the father and mother of the groom. This table was tastefully decorated with four white crepe paper streamers, suspended from the ceiling and fastened to the four corners of the table with bouquets of daisies and ferns. Refreshments of strawberries, sandwiches and cake were served by several young ladies and gentlemen. Angus Smith, in behalf of the lodge, presented the worthy couple an elegant electric library lamp, to which Mr. Walker appropriately responded. They were immediately showered with confetti by two young ladies who were on the stage in the rear of the hall, which was literally banked in the front with ferns and bouquets of daisies.
